Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Arthur Russell Janklow has successfully completed a twelve-year course of academic study and will commerate this completion by participating in the Riggs High School Graduation Exercises on June 3, 1981; and,

WHEREAS, Russell has accomplished a feat neither his father, nor his father's father before him has been able to manage; and,

WHEREAS, Russell has been a loyal family "servant" during his years at Riggs High School, taking care of automobile maintenance, boat maintenance, running various errands and caring for the undersigned's home in general; and,

WHEREAS, Russell is a son any man would be extremely proud to call his own, and the undersigned is no exception; and,

WHEREAS, With the culmination of Russell Janklow's high school career, he not only displays the wisdom of a high school degree, but the judgement and moral values which earn him the title of a gentleman; and,

WHEREAS, The undersigned is so damned proud of Arthur Russell Janklow's many accomplishments, he couldn't resist the temptation to bring those accomplishments to the attention of all the people of the State of South Dakota:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Father of Arthur Russell Janklow and Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Wednesday, June 3, 1981, as

ARTHUR RUSSELL JANKLOW DAY

In South Dakota, and I urge all South Dakotans to join me in wishing Arthur Russell Janklow a lifetime of health, happiness and prosperity, and in thanking him for the wonderful years he has shared with us thus far.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Second Day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-One

WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

ALICE KUNDERT, SECRETARY OF STATE